Q. IV. What Preachers have DIED since the last Conference?

A. 1. In Great Britain, the thirty following:-

(1.) ROBERT HUMPHREYS; who was born at Llanelidan, in Denbighshire, in the year 1779, and was among the first-fruits of Wesleyan Missionary labour in that neighbourhood. Soon after he was brought to the knowledge of the truth, he began to officiate as a Local Preacher; and in the year 1805 was called into our itinerant ministry, in which it may be truly said that he engaged with an ardent desire to spend and be spent in his great Master's service. For the period of twenty-seven years he laboured with unabated zeal and faithfulness, and in many places was made instrumental in the conversion of sinners. sessed a good understanding, extensive information, and invincible courage in the service of his Lord. He was a bold reprover of sin; and in all places endeavoured faithfully to maintain the discipline, as well as to defend the doctrines, of our Connexion. In his zealous endeavours he was prodigal of strength; and his exertions no doubt had the effect of considerably impairing his naturally very strong At the Conference of 1832 he was appointed to the Beaumaris Circuit, where he arrived on the evening of Saturday, the 18th of August. On Sunday he preached with much acceptance to crowded congregations; and again on Monday evening, from that passage, "Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil." On the following morning, at nine o'clock, he was seized with cholera, and his case was pronounced to be of the worst kind. Immediately on his being attacked an extraordinary prostration of strength took place, so that he was able to speak but little. He remarked, however, to his deeply-afflicted wife, "I am not afraid to walk through the valley." At seven the same evening, August 21st, he died, aged fifty-three vears.

(2.) Owen Rees, a native of South Wales. He travelled for some years acceptably and usefully in the Principality, preaching in the Welsh language. He was afterwards stationed at Gibraltar; and then laboured in several English Circuits, until declining health obliged him to become a Supernumerary. A short time before his death, he said, in answer to a question from a friend, "All is well." He died August 22d, 1832, in the forty-fourth year of his age, and twenty-fourth of his ministry.

(3.) ADAM CLARKE, LL.D. This great man, and valuable Minister of Christ, was born near Coleraine in Ireland, about the year 1762. In early life he gave striking indications of a mind possessed at once of extraordinary powers, and of an ardent thirst for knowledge; and under the instructions of his father, a teacher of youth, commenced those studies which he prosecuted with such eminent success through every period of his subsequent life; and which he employed so nobly and usefully in the illustration and enforcement of evangelical truth. His conversion, which took place about the sixteenth year of his age, was remarkably clear and sound; accompanied with the deepest feeling, first of contrition, and then of " peace and joy through believing;" with an entire change of heart; and with the most decided resolution to devote his whole soul to the service of God. Having spent a short time at Kingswood-School, he was called out by Mr. Wesley, in the year 1782, as an itinerant Preacher in the Methodist Connexion; and soon justified the opinion formed concerning him by that admirable judge of character, who hesitated not to affirm, "Adam Clarke is doubtless an extraordinary young man, and capable of doing much good." For nearly half a century did he continue to perform the most important labours as the servant of God and of mankind, in various departments of the vineyard of the church, with great integrity, and with an industry which perhaps has never been surpassed. The natural strength of his mind, and the range of his literary and biblical acquirements, were, in the opinion of competent judges, far beyond the common standard, even of those who have attained considerable rank among men of learning and research. Without at all presuming that he was wholly free from defects, either as a man, a Preacher, or a writer, we may yet safely place him, in all these characters, among the great men of his age. He was highly distinguished by his extraordinary attainments in oriental literature, which appears to have been one of the most favourite studies of his life, and by means of which he has often shed a new and profitable light upon the sacred text. Of his writings in general it may be confidently said, they have added largely to the valuable literary and biblical stores of the country. The ability and fervent zeal with which for so many years he preached the Gospel of the grace of God to enraptured thousands, in almost every part of the United Kingdom. will long be remembered with the liveliest gratitude to their Divine Redeemer, by multitudes to whom his labours were greatly blessed, both as the means of their conversion, and of their general edification. No man in any age of the church was ever known for so long a period to have attracted larger audiences; no herald of salvation ever sounded forth his message with greater faithfulness or fervour,-the fervour of love to Christ, and to the souls of perishing sinners: and few Ministers of the Gospel, in modern times, have been more honoured by the extraordinary unction of the Holy Spirit in their ministrations. To this unction chiefly, though associated with uncommon talents. must be attributed the wonderful success and popularity of his discourses. In preaching he had the happy art of combining great originality and depth of subject, with the utmost plainness of speech and manner. Nor was this simplicity at all destroyed, but rather augmented, by the glow and animation of his soul when applying the offer of salvation to all within the sound of his voice, and reasoning strongly on the grand and vital doctrines of the Gospel. The ardent feeling which in others sometimes leads to a rapid invention of elegant or of pompous language, in him was confined to the increased accumulation of great and noble sentiments. His favourite and most successful subjects in the pulpit were the love of God to fallen man, the atonement, repentance, faith in Christ as the grand principle of the spiritual life and of practical holiness, together with the undoubted assurance of adoption by the direct witness of the Holy Spirit in the heart of the believer. On these subjects he would often rise to the genuine grandeur of evangelical preaching, pouring forth like a torrent the unostentatious eloquence of a benevolent and loving heart. Energy indeed was one very peculiar characteristic of his mind. Nor was he less remarkable for sensibility, and all the tenderness and sympathy of an affectionate disposition. He could be "gentle, even as a nurse cherisheth her children;" yet when environed with great difficulties in the prosecution of his noble objects, he seemed, from the extraordinary vigour and determined purpose of his soul, to conquer them with ease. His moral character was above all suspicion, and above all praise. In this particular, no cloud, no speck was ever seen to darken the horizon of his life. In prayer he was simple, spiritual, devout, and sometimes singularly ardent. His piety was sincere, and deep, and eminently practical; the very reverse of that sensitive, but unsound feeling, which loves to flourish on the subject of experience, but serves not God in a conscientious obedience to all the precepts of his Gospel. He was almost a perfect model of diligence in duty. The ingenuity and energy with which he husbanded his time, and carried forward the arduous plans of usefulness in which he was constantly employed, form one of the most distinguished features of his admirable character. He was a warmhearted, faithful, affectionate, and constant friend. And in all the relations of domestic life, as a husband, a father, and a master, he was true to the duties which belong to them, -most indulgent, kind, and sympathizing; always happy in the bosom of his family, and always labouring, by every art in his power, to make them also happy. He was uniformly a firm, attached, and zealous Methodist; and in promoting the interests of our great cause, he may be said to have been "in labours more abundant." This love to the body, and the great public interests of Methodism, was never more delightfully evinced than at the last Conference, when, but a very few weeks before his lamented dissolution, he mingled with his brethren in the most affectionate manner, and very cordially assisted in despatching the business of that important assembly; and, writing to a friend on this subject, he exclaims, in the pious satisfaction of his soul, "We have had a glorious Conference!" may just add, that he had been thrice chosen to fill the situation of President of the Conference. died suddenly of cholera morbus in the vicinity of London, on the 26th of August, 1832, in the seventysecond year of his age. On the day of his death, when first seized, and entering on his sufferings, with painful suspense'as to the result of them, he was exhorted by a friend to put his trust in Christ. He replied, with a point and promptness peculiar to himself, "I have done that already;" leaving in these, which may be deemed his last words, a sublime lesson to the mortal survivors who might afterwards reflect upon his life and death, that they also should, by early, decided, and persevering piety, be found ready when their Lord should call.

(4.) THOMAS COOPER. In early life he was brought to the knowledge of the "truth as it is in Jesus," and commenced his itinerant career in the year 1781, in which he continued, with but little intermission, until the year 1821, when, through the infirmities incident to old age, he became a Supernumerary. He was a man of sound sense, and of more than ordinary ministerial talent; so that his labours were not only acceptable, but popular and useful. During the last ten years of his life, he suffered under such bodily and mental affliction as rendered him incapable of taking part in any regular conversation on general topics. Nevertheless, when the leading truths of evangelical religion were introduced, his attention was immediately aroused, and his heart was powerfully and delightfully affected, by a sense of their reality and value. He died in great peace, September 30th, 1832, aged seventy-two years.

- (5.) JOHN HODSON; who was born at Seighford. near Stafford, in the year 1765. In the days of his youth the Spirit of God strove with him, and he was occasionally impressed with serious thoughts concerning his immortal interests; but it was not until he was nearly twenty-six years of age that he became fully decided, and chose the Lord for his God. After having been a member of the Methodist Society six years, and a Leader and Local Preacher a considerable part of that time, he was, at the Conference of 1797, appointed to labour, in the word and doctrine, as an itinerant Preacher. He travelled thirty-five years with an unblemished character: his judgment was sound and correct; his deportment sober and serious; and his habits punctual and orderly. He loved the doctrines, and maintained the discipline, of Methodism. His talents as a Preacher were not of the most attractive kind, vet they were such as to render him generally acceptable. At the Conference of 1831 he was appointed to the Shaftesbury Circuit. Here his constitution received a severe shock, in consequence of his walking a considerable distance in the cold night-air, after preaching to a very crowded congregation. He was taken ill the same night, and preached only three times afterwards. He bore his affliction with much Christian patience. and conversed in an animated and edifying manner on the happy state of his mind, and his prospect of future glory. He died in the Lord, at Shaftesbury, October 8th, 1832, in the sixty-seventh year of his age.
- (6.) THOMAS STANLEY, the son of Edward Stanley, who was a Local Preacher upwards of sixty years. He had the advantage of a religious education, enforced by the example of his pious parents. At an early period of life he was soundly converted to God. He entered upon our itinerant ministry in the year 1795, and continued in the work until called to his reward in the thirty-eighth year of his itinerancy. He was a man of strict integrity and genuine piety. Those who knew him best esteemed him most. He had a strong mind, improved by reading and deep thinking. His habitual temper was amiable and obliging; and when circumstances, in the discharge of his duty, required it, forbearing; yet faithful in delivering his testimony against evil. As a Preacher, he was acceptable and useful. His sermons were, in general, short; always judicious. He cared for the flock committed to his charge; and on some occasions, especially when any thing occurred likely to be injurious to religion, his feelings were too acute for his own comfort. He was a faithful servant of Christ, a kind and affectionate husband, a tender parent, and a steady friend. In various Circuits, God highly honoured him in the conversion of sinners. Towards the close of life, there appeared in him an increasing spirituality of mind, and he frequently made observations which indicated a presentiment that the time of his departure was at hand. He was evidently ripening for glory; and his sudden removal, though afflictive to surviving friends, was to him like a translation from earth to heaven. He finished his course October 9th, 1832, aged fifty-nine years.

(7.) Joseph Sanders; who was a native of Cornwall. In the year 1799 he was convinced of sin, and in the following year found peace with God. In 1808 he was received into our itinerant work, in which he continued to labour with zeal and fidelity more than twenty-four years. His ministry was plain, energetic, and successful. He loved and maintained the doctrines and discipline of Methodism. His death was sudden. He preached on Wednesday evening, October 10th, 1832; at ten o'clock the next morning he was seized with cholera; and died on the evening of the same day, aged fifty years, in great peace, and expressing the firmest confidence in Christ.

He has given evidence of his strong attachment to our Connexion by leaving a legacy of nineteen guineas to each of the following institutions:—the Kingswood and Woodhouse-Grove Schools, the Wesleyan Missionary Society, the Chapel Fund, the Preachers' Annuitant Society, and the Auxiliary Fund.

- (8.) James Penman; who, at an early period of life, was deeply convinced of sin, and savingly brought to the knowledge of God, under the ministry of the late venerable Joseph Taylor. Feeling an earnest desire to call sinners to repentance, he became a Local Preacher, and was soon afterwards called into our ministry. Strongly attached to Methodism, he was faithful, laborious, and useful, in the discharge of his official duties. He often expressed a wish that, if so the Lord should will, he might "cease at once to work and live;" and his desire was granted. After an illness of a very few days, in which he was most graciously supported, and enabled to exercise an unshaken confidence in his Saviour, he died at Brackley, unspeakably happy in God, October 10th, 1832, in the sixty-fourth year of his age, and the thirtyninth of his ministry.
- (9.) RICHARD ELLIDGE; who was converted to God in early life, and entered on our itinerant work in the year 1813. He travelled among us with an unblemished character; was a diligent, faithful, and useful Preacher; very affectionate in his disposition, and greatly beloved by his colleagues, and the people amongst whom he laboured. He was cut off by the cholera in the midst of his days; and died happy in God, October 26th, 1832.
- (10.) John James, a native of Liverpool; in which town he was early led by his mother to the Methodist chapel, where he heard, and cordially embraced, the word of life, which was made the instrument of his salvation. He was distinguished through life by steady and fervent piety, and inflexible integrity, united to great affability, cheerfulness, and generosity. As a Preacher, he was at once eloquent, sound, ardent, and exceedingly useful: During the last five years of his life he filled the office of Missionary Secretary, in which he displayed great promptitude, correctness, fidelity, and affection; and his services in that important and responsible situation were of eminent value. Under his indefatigable, incessant, and severe though happy toil, his constitution, naturally good, gave way; and after a repetition of alarming symptoms, he died suddenly, on the 6th of November, 1832, in the forty-seventh year of his age, and the twenty-sixth of his ministry.

- (11.) GEORGE WHITFIELD, aged seventy-nine. For some years he travelled with Mr. Wesley as his companion; after which he filled, for a considerable period, the office of Book-Steward. The last twenty years of his life he resided at Tottenham, near London; where, by his upright and uniform conduct, and his efforts to do good, he acquired the respect of all classes. preaching was characterized by great simplicity and affection, and tended to the edification of those who knew God, and the encouragement of those who were seeking salvation. His last illuess was long and painful; but it appeared to those about him, and to his Christian friends in general, that it was graciously instrumental in making him "meet for the inheritance of the saints in light." He died in peace, December 24th, 1832.
- (12.) EDWARD NORWOOD; who commenced his itinerant labours in the year 1823. He was a young man of sincere and ardent piety, amiable in his temper, and faithful as a labourer in the Lord's vineyard. In the spring of 1831 his health began to decline, and at the following Conference he became a Supernumerary. His complaint was a lingering consumption; in the course of which he was confined to his bed about seven weeks. He manifested, during his illness, great Christian meekness, and resignation to the divine will;

and died in peace at Mansfield, on the 29th of December, 1832, in the thirty-sixth year of his age.

- (13.) Joseph Brown, in the thirtieth year of his age, and the fifth of his ministry. He was converted to God when about twenty years of age, and soon afterwards became an active and zealous Local Preacher. He entered into our itinerant work in the year 1828, and laboured acceptably and usefully in the Circuits to which he was appointed. He well understood the doctrines of Methodism, and faithfully preached them. He was a young man of studious habits, of modest and unassuming manners, and of genuine piety. In his affliction he manifested great patience, and cheerfully resigned himself to the divine will. On the day before his death, he said, "I have not for a moment doubted the continued favour and presence of God throughout my affliction;" and on the day of his death he exclaimed, "I am comfortable every way: praise the Lord!" In this happy state of mind he entered into the joy of his Lord, December 31st, 1832.
- (14.) RICHARD WATSON. One of the most painful bereavements which any Christian church ever suffered, our Connexion has sustained in the loss of this distinguished man, and eminent servant of Jesus Christ. In him were united intellectual powers which are seldom found combined in the same person, and never but in minds of the first order. With great liveliness and brilliancy of imagination, he possessed a judgment uncommonly sound and discriminating. To his understanding belonged a capacity which the greatness of a subject could not exceed; a strength and clearness which the number and complexity of its parts could not confuse; and a vigour which the difficulty and length of an inquiry could not weary. These faculties were early awakened into action; and their first indication produced an impression on the minds of his friends, that the Head of the Church designed him for the Christian ministry. He began to preach at an early period of life; but not before he had been deeply convinced of his personal sinfulness and danger, and sought and found peace to his soul through faith in Christ,-nor before he had experienced a scriptural conversion to God. Not long after this memorable change, he was called into the itinerant ministry: in which he laboured with great zeal and promise of future eminence for upwards of four years. It is not surprising that a mind like his, conscious of its powers, should in some of its early motions have been irregular. But though for a few years withdrawn from our body, and a Minister in another community, yet he did not renounce those vital doctrines which he first received: his heart held his understanding to the truth; and in 1812 he returned to our Connexion with a mind greatly enlarged, and enriched with a considerable store of various knowledge, and with his spirit much improved in Christian piety. On recommencing his ministry among us, his powers appeared to acquire new vigour; and in their full energy he devoted them all to the service of mankind. His great abilities first excited general attention by the part which he took in promoting the Missionary cause; and his sermons and speeches for that purpose, with his sermons on other particular occasions, may be ranked with the most splendid that ever mind conceived or tongue uttered. His regular ministry in a Circuit, though adapted to more ordinary use, was not inferior to his occasional efforts. There was in him a rich fulness of evangelical truth; he arranged it with uncommon readiness; and he dispensed it with a liberality which never feared exhaustion: whilst his extensive acquaintance with ancient learning and modern science, and his susceptibility of impression from the scenes of nature, enabled him to illustrate and adorn his preaching with singular felicity. To the reasoning powers and habits of a philosopher, he united the imagination of a poet; the most familiar topics of Christian theology appeared with new beauty and force when set in the light of his genius ;-he touched every thing with the hand of a master. His element was the lofty and the vast; his-conceptions naturally rose into sublimity, and expanded into grandeur; yet there was nothing left vague and indefinite, for he could with ease adapt them to the humblest understanding, and concentrate them into sentiments and maxims of the most beautiful and impressive wisdom. Persons of the highest rank for intellectual power, in listening to his discourses, have rejoiced to feel and own the deep and powerful sway which he exerted over them; whilst the poor and the unlettered hung with absorbed attention on all that fell from his lips. As a Preacher, it was his highest praise that the subjects on which he usually chose to exert his powers were the truths by the ministry of which from age to age the dead in sin have been quickened into spiritual life, and Christ exhibited in his fulness of grace as the Almighty Saviour of all who seek his help. To the church of God his preaching was eminently useful, hallowing, and elevating the soul to heaven. He possessed a remarkable readiness in composition, and his pen was often employed in the service of truth. wrote to defend our Missions, when aspersed in the legislature of the country; to justify the true principles of scripture interpretation, and establish the doctrines of Methodism, when popular writings were tending to compromise those principles and unsettle our faith; he wrote to instruct the young, and to assist men of riper age and maturer mind in their searches after Scriptural knowledge: and his writings will be admired for implicit deference to the authority of the Scriptures, for clearness and soundness of theological reasoning and opinion, and beauty of expression, as long as the truth is held in estimation amongst men. In his writings, as in his preaching, utility was his aim; and no man could form a wiser judgment of what Though honoured of late years as one of was useful. the first intellectual men of his day, this produced no elation of heart; he regarded his talents and his time as given him in trust, and his exalted purpose was to gain the approbation of his divine Master. The deep sense which he felt of his responsibility to God, whilst it humbled, strongly stimulated his mind; so that in the absence of health, and frequently in suffering, to the last he held on his course without faltering. As life advanced, his piety became more elevated; the improvement of his moral frame engaged his utmost attention. He habitually preserved on his mind a devout sense of God: when he spoke of him or worshipped him, he was full of holy veneration; and his prayers, both in the congregation and with his friends, showed the full permission of approach to God which he enjoyed, and with what reverent boldness he availed himself of his privilege. He was eminently spiritually minded; and for some time before his death he exhibited the fruits of the Spirit in full maturity. In his last affliction he was greatly honoured of God; and perhaps the closing scene of no saint's life ever furnished lessons of richer instruction. On the approach of death, he viewed it as a foe, and felt it to be an evil; he was humbled that man should be stricken and trampled into the grave by the last enemy, and when, as in his own case, his faculties were in their prime, and his mind meditating and revolving plans of usefulness to the world: it was the glorious hope and Christian assurance of perfect bliss after death, and beyond the grave, that enabled him to triumph; and his triumph was complete. Through the grace of his Divine Saviour, with his characteristic strength of mind he firmly grasped and applied his Christian principles; and they sustained his faith in his walk through "the valley of the shadow of death." "I am a poor vile worm," said he; "but then the worm is permitted to crawl out of the earth into the garden of the Lord ***

'I shall behold his face,
I shall his power adore;
And sing the wonders of his grace,
For evermore.'"

Thus confident, he waited until his Master's call spoke him up to heaven. As a man, he was of a truly noble mind; superior through life to every thing mean and little; he was magnanimous, disinterested, generous. His form was dignified, and his countenance bore striking expressions of his intellectual greatness. His elevated views and the majesty of his character impressed a dignity on his manners, which the kindness of his temper, and his general readiness to oblige, rendered particularly easy and graceful. As a friend, he extorted no servile homage as the price of his friendship: if there were times when he was too much engaged in thought to exhibit more than common fervour of affection, there were others, which occurred far more frequently, when he gave himself freely to his friends, and then his conversation never failed to instruct and charm. This bright luminary of the church and of his circle set in death, to rise in eternal glory, January 8th, 1833. He died in the fifty-second year of his age.

(15.) ROBERT CROWTHER, a native of Yorkshire. He was powerfully awakened to a sense of his lost condition through the instrumentality of a sermon preached by Dr. Coke; and in seeking the Lord with his whole heart, became the subject of a sound conversion. He entered upon the work of the ministry with many fears, though in obedience to the call of God and his church, and with an earnest solicitude for the salvation of a perishing world. He commenced his itinerancy in the year 1789, in the Norwich Circuit, and continued his active labours in the church for the space of forty-one years; when, by the necessity of age and infirmities, he became a Supernumerary in the year 1830. He was a man of an unblemished character, a great lover of the Methodist doctrines and discipline, and a successful Minister of Jesus Christ. It was not long after he ceased from the active duties of the ministry, that he became the subject of repeated attacks of paralysis, which considerably impaired his powers both of body and mind; but in "patience he possessed his soul," and murmured not at the "chastening of the Lord." On some occasions, he was enabled to converse freely and cheerfully concerning the things of God. Some of his last words were, "Tell my brethren in the ministry that I die in the cordial belief of those doctrines which I have preached for the last forty years, and that I hope to meet them all in heaven." He died at Rochdale, January 19th, 1833, in the seventieth year of his age.

- (16.) Francis Truscott. He died at Plymouth, February 17th, 1833; and had travelled forty-four years in the Methodist Connexion, when he finished his earthly course. He was a man of uniform and deep piety, clear doctrinal views, solid judgment, most respectable pulpit talents, and an undeviating integrity. No man ever maintained a more unblemished deportment through life, or exhibited more amiable and engaging manners; in consequence of which he was universally beloved, and died deeply lamented by all who knew him, especially by his most intimate friends and relatives; but, as he died in the triumph of faith, their loss is his eternal gain.
- (17.) ROBERT MARTIN, in the fifty-second year of his age, and the twenty-ninth of his itinerancy. He was a native of Ireland; and, at an early period of life, the admonitions and example of a pious father appear to have produced, under the influence of the Holy Spirit. those serious reflections which led him to seek the forgiveness of sins through faith in the Lord Jesus Christ,—and he soon obtained the witness of his acceptance with God. After some time, his religious experience appears to have been subject to fluctuation until the age of fourteen; when he devoted himself afresh to God, and thenceforward professed to walk in the light of his countenance. By the British Conference of 1804 he was appointed to a Circuit; and from that period he laboured in our Connexion with acceptance and usefulness. His views of the doctrines of Methodism were clear and comprehensive; and his intimate acquaintance with our discipline was blended with selfcommand, fidelity, and affection in its enforcement.

In the social circle, he was unassuming, kind, communicative; and as a husband and father, rarely surpassed. He was divinely supported in his heavy affliction; and when all hope of his recovery was gone, his confidence in God, through Jesus Christ, remained unshaken. He died at Portsea, March 1st, 1833.

- (18.) John Hudson, Supernumerary in the New-castle-upon-Tyne Circuit. He was a man of peace, and great simplicity; and during the short time of his itinerancy was made a blessing to many. He died happy in God, on the 29th of March, 1833, in the eightieth year of his age.
- (19.) John C. Leppington. During the last two years of his life, those who had the best opportunity of observing him perceived in him an increase of mildness and brotherly kindness. In his last illness, his most frequent expression was, "I am rejoicing in hope of the glory of God." He died April 3d, 1833.
- (20.) WILLIAM SUTCLIFFE, a native of Yorkshire. In the year 1804 he was sent as a Missionary to Nova-Scotia; in which country, Bermuda, Canada, he exercised his ministry for fourteen years, and endured many privations and hardships. returned under circumstances of disadvantage, apparently arising from imbecility of mind. In 1825 he was made a Supernumerary, and resided nearly seven years in Manchester. As a Class-Leader, he diligently visited the sick, and, according to his ability, relieved the poor. He appears to have been very cautious not to speak evil of the absent. generally expressed himself as enjoying the divine favour, but as needing a greater degree of divine love. The death of Mrs. Sutcliffe, which occurred on April 4th, exceedingly affected him. He prayed that the Lord would support him, and added, "Thou hast promised; and I claim thy promise." The same evening, a disease similar to that of which his wife had died, seized him. His suffering was great, but he endured it patiently. He died April 8th, 1833, in the sixty-first year of his age, and the twenty-ninth of his ministry.

- (21.) Thomas Bellows; a young man of deep piety, and good ministerial abilities. After a long and painful affliction, which he bore with great patience and submission to the divine will, and in which he enjoyed much peace and close fellowship with God, he died, April 16th, 1833, in the twenty-fourth year of his age, and the first of his ministry.
- (22.) JOHN SLACK; who was born at Belton, near Epworth, in Lincolnshire, December 28th, 1774. At the age of nineteen he was converted to God, and joined the Methodist society. In about two years after his conversion, he began to preach; and at the Conference of 1799, commenced his itinerant labours, which he prosecuted with great acceptance, zeal, and fidelity, until February last, when he had a sudden attack of paralysis, which laid him aside from all public duty. On April 27th, 1833, he was seized with apoplexy, which rendered him totally insensible; and in the afternoon of the following day he "entered into the joy of his Lord." During his affliction he was kept in peace; and, although occasionally much depressed, he uniformly manifested a spirit of resignation to the will of God. He possessed a vigorous understanding, a strong and retentive memory, and a mind well stored with theological truth, which had been carefully drawn from the purest sources. His habits were studious to the last; his public discourses evinced much originality of thought, and were delivered in a plain, pointed, and striking style. His disposition was kind, and his manners unassuming. He was firmly attached to our doctrines and discipline, and strongly opposed to faction. He was very orderly in all his Circuit engagements, a most excellent agreeable colleague, and deservedly respected by the people amongst whom he laboured.

(23.) PHILIP RAWLINS, in the Rochester Circuit, aged seventy-eight. He was received into the Methodist society in early life by the Rev. John Wesley; and for many years was a respectable tradesman, and useful Local Preacher, in London. In the year 1803 he entered on the arduous duties of an itinerant Preacher; and in those duties laboured diligently and faithfully twenty-one years; and then, through growing infirmities, became a Supernumerary. His last days were afflictive; but he was patient, and rejoiced in hope of the glory of God. A short time before his death, which was calm and peaceful, he said,

"Angels beckon me away, And Jesus bids me come."

His ministerial gifts were useful and acceptable; his temper and conduct were pious and holy; and he was generally respected as a Christian, and a faithful Minister of the Gospel. He died May 16th, 1833.

(24.) John Symons, in the thirty-sixth year of his age, and the ninth of his ministry. He was a subject of serious impressions in early life, and, when about seventeen, was truly converted to God, and became a member of the Methodist society. called to the itinerant work in the year 1824; and continued his accustomed labours until the last year, when his constitution began to sink under a pulmonary disease. He was a man of genuine piety, amiable temper, good sense, and irreproachable life; a faithful and agreeable colleague, and an acceptable and useful Preacher. He was supported during his affliction by a consciousness of his acceptance with God through faith in the atonement of our Lord Jesus Christ; and died in peace at Torquay, June 5th, 1833.

(25.) Thomas Laycock, a native of Keighley.

At the age of seventeen years he was awakened to a sense of his guilt and danger; but, being very imperfectly acquainted with the plan of salvation, two years elapsed before he obtained the knowledge of sins forgiven. Deeply concerned for the salvation of others, and believing it to be his duty to preach the Gospel, he began, though with much fear, to call sinners to repentance. Being recommended to our itinerant work, he was appointed to the Colne Circuit. After travelling thirty-six years, the infirmities of age compelled him to become a Supernumerary, and he retired to Doncaster, where he died in great peace, June the 8th, 1833.

- (26.) TITUS CLOSE; who was brought to God in the year 1815, and soon began to preach, with zeal and success, that glorious Gospel which had been made the power of God to his own salvation. After labouring some time as a Missionary in Continental India, with prudence and usefulness, he returned to England in a state of ill health. He was exceedingly amiable, cheerful, and affectionate, a willing servant of the Lord and of his church. His fidelity and kindness as a Pastor and colleague, and in all the relations of life, together with his piety and usefulness, greatly endeared him to his colleagues and relations, and to those among whom he laboured. That faith in our Lord Jesus Christ which he delighted to preach to others supported him in his last sickness. He died at Croft, near Darlington, on Monday, the 10th of June, 1833, in great peace, giving glory to God, in the thirty-eighth vear of his age.
- (27.) George Gellard; who, having been truly converted to God, entered on the itinerant work in the year 1798. His ministerial talents were acceptable and useful. He possessed an amiable disposition, and was faithful in his friendships. His labours being frequently interrupted by bodily affliction, in the year 1821 he became a Supernumerary. He lived in communion with God, and died in peace, July 6th, 1833.

(28.) John Nicholson, sen.; who died July 29th, 1833. He was a man of plain manners and laborious habits; and, as a Preacher, generally acceptable in the Circuits to which he was appointed. He travelled in our Connexion twenty-three years; and under the sanctified influence of recent domestic afflictions was more fully prepared for his unexpected end. This, to use his own dying expression, "came peacefully upon him;" and he fell quietly asleep in Jesus, experiencing the support of those doctrines which he had successfully preached.

(29.) THOMAS MORGAN. He was born in South Wales. Early in life he was converted to God; and though constitutionally timid and inclined to retirement, the love of Christ constrained him to enter on the public ministry, in which he laboured with unwearied diligence twenty-five years,-seven years in England, and eighteen among the enslaved sons of Africa in the West-India islands. He was a man of the strictest integrity, and of upright conduct; kind and affectionate, as a colleague and Superintendent; and as a Chairman of foreign Districts, remarkable for correctness and clearness in his financial accounts, and for economy in his expenditure of the public money. It was in a great degree owing to his cordial co-operation with the Missionary Committee, in their plans of economy, that they were enabled to enlarge their sphere of usefulness, and increase the number of labourers in that part of the Missionary field. He died suddenly on his journey to the Conference; but his work was finished, his soul was ripe for glory; and his memory will long be precious to his friends in England, and to the thousands of negroes who were converted to God, or edified in the faith, by his ministry in the West Indies.

(30.) THOMAS FEARNLEY; who was born at Ashton, in Mackerfield, in the county of Lancaster. From the earliest period of his recollection he was a subject of strong convictions of sin; and when he sought and found mercy, his evidence of conversion was as satisfactory as his convictions had been deep and painful; and every step which he took in the affairs of life, subsequently to this saving change, bore evident marks of its genuineness. He was called into our itinerant work in the year 1799; and he prosecuted his ministerial labours with integrity, zeal, acceptance, and, in many instances, with visible success. He was a lover of our doctrines, and judiciously zealous in the maintenance of our discipline. In consequence of a severe cold caught by sleeping in a damp bed, and of the growing infirmities of age, he was compelled, in the year 1818, to desist from our regular work, and become a Supernumerary. During the last twelve months of his life, he was principally confined to his bed, gradually declining in strength, but invariably retaining a lively sense of the divine presence, and rejoicing in God his Saviour. He died in great peace, at Wigan, August 8th, 1833, in the eighty-second year of his age.

2. In Ireland, three; viz.,-

(1.) ROBERT BAILEY, a native of the county of Fermanagh. At an early period he was brought under serious awakenings through the ministry of the Methodist Preachers, and sought the Lord while he was yet young. Having felt the power of saving grace in his own heart, he longed to publish the Gospel of that grace to others. In the year 1800 he was regularly called into our itinerant ministry, and for nearly thirtythree years laboured with considerable acceptance and success. He was conscientiously attached to our doctrine and discipline. His zeal and diligence were equalled only by his faithfulness and perseverance in his hallowed calling. Fifteen years he laboured as an Irish Missionary, and continued in his work until the evening before he died. Some time before his death his mind seemed more than ordinarily impressed with divine things; his conversation was in heaven, and he obviously entertained a presentiment of his dissolution. He was seized by cholera on the 17th of October, 1832, and in fifteen hours closed his mortal career. While the fatal disease rapidly gained upon him, a friend asked him how he was: he replied, "It is all over. O, dying is hard work; but all is well!" He died in the full triumph of faith, on the 18th of October, 1832, in the sixtieth year of his age.

- (2.) MATTHEW LANKTREE, JUN.; who, after having travelled seven years, was compelled to retire through ill health: and having suffered much during a protracted affliction, died in peace, February 1st, 1833, aged thirty-two years.
- (3.) James M'Kown; who died in peace, February 3d, 1833, aged sixty-eight years.
 - 3. In our Foreign Missions, three have died; viz.,-
- (1.) RICHARD POPE. He was converted to God in early life, and entered on the Missionary work in the year 1816, the active duties of which he continued to discharge with diligence and fidelity for upwards of thirteen years. The extent of his labours, and the ardency of his zeal, during the first years of his itinerancy, in a newly settled country, laid the foundation of a complaint which ultimately compelled him to become a Supernumerary. In every Circuit in which he laboured, his sincere and fervent piety procured for him the respect and affection of the people; and God succeeded his endeavours by his effectual blessing. He died in peace, in Quebec, on the 2d of September, 1832.
- (2.) George Newlove. He was a young man of ardent piety, and of promising abilities. He lived only a few weeks after his arrival in Canada, where he had gained the respect and affection of those with whom he associated. He died of the malignant cholera, ten hours after the commencement of the attack, in the exercise of faith in the merits of his Redeemer, on the 26th of June, 1832.

- (3.) ABRAHAM WHITEHOUSE. He was born in Birmingham of pious parents, who were members of our society. In early life he was brought to a knowledge of the truth as it is in Jesus, and in due time was called to preach to others the unsearchable riches of Christ. After having officiated for some time as a Local Preacher, he commenced his itinerant labours in the year 1812, and during the following year was appointed to a station in the West Indies; in which interesting portion of the Missionary field he laboured with great zeal, perseverance, and usefulness, twenty years. He died in peace on the 10th of January, 1833, in the forty-fifth year of his age.
- Q. V. Are there any objections to any of our Preachers?
 - A. They were examined one by one.
- Q. VI. What Preachers have desisted from travelling?
 - A. In Ireland, John Stuart.
 - Q. VII. How are our Preachers STATIONED for the ensuing year?
 - A. As follows; viz.,-

Q. IX. Who is appointed the President of the next Conference in Ireland, to be held in Dublin, on the first Thursday in July, 1834?

A. Our PRESIDENT, the REV. RICHARD TREFFRY. SEN.; who, if unavoidably prevented, has authority to nominate a substitute.

N. B. 1. The Rev. ROBERT NEWTON, and one of the General Secretaries of our Missions, are appointed to accompany the President to the next Irish Conference.

2. The President is requested to visit Scotland, at whatever time of the year shall be most agreeable to him; and as many of the Preachers stationed in Scotland as conveniently can, are directed to meet him at such time and place as he shall appoint. The Rev. Robert Newton is appointed to accompany the President to Scotland.

3. The President, and the Rev. John Scott, are desired to attend the next Annual Meeting of the Second South-Wales District, to be held at Aberystwith, in the spring of 1834. The Rev. RICHARD REECE and the REV. SAMUEL JACKSON are requested to attend the North-Wales District-Meeting, to be held at Llanfyllin at the same period of the year. Two of the English Preachers stationed in Wales shall attend the District-Meetings of the Welsh Preachers, and two of the Welsh brethren shall attend the District-Meeting of the English Preachers.

Q. X. Who are the Committee for guarding our privileges during the ensuing year?

A. The PRESIDENT and SECRETARY of the Con-FERENCE; all the Preachers appointed for the six London Circuits; the Superintendents of the Deptford and Hammersmith Circuits; and all those Preachers, now living, who have filled the office of PRESIDENT of the Conference; together with the following gentlemen :-

Society during the last year; and Mr. Haslope and the Rev. Joseph Taylor are respectfully requested to accept that office for the ensuing year.

4. The cordial thanks of the Conference are hereby presented to the Rev. John Beecham, for his very acceptable and valuable services as General Secretary to our Missions during the past year.

5. At the several Financial District-Meetings which shall be held in September, arrangements shall be made for holding Missionary Meetings throughout the respective Districts, during the ensuing year; so that such Meetings may be held wherever practicable, and at the least possible expense; and the District Treasurers and Secretaries shall be admitted to the District-Meetings when such arrangements are under consideration. It is also recommended, that a Quarterly Meeting of each District Auxiliary Missionary Committee be summoned during the sitting of the Annual District-Meeting, for the purpose of investigating the expenses incurred at Anniversaries, &c.

6. The following Preachers and other friends are particularly invited to attend the Special Meeting of the Missionary Committee, which will be held in London, at nine o'clock in the forenoon of Tuesday, July 29th, 1834, according to the seventeenth article of "Laws and Regulations of the Wesleyan Missionary Society," viz., the Rev. M'Donald, William Atherton, Thomas Rogers, Robert Wheeler, and Henry D. Lowe; with Messrs. John Hall, Thomas Exley, J. Capel, James Wood, John Irvine, Thomas Wright, John Wesley Hall, and Thomas Harris, of Bristol; and Messrs. Liddiard and Phipps, of Bath.

Q. XIII. Who are the Local Committee for Woodhouse-Grove School for the ensuing year?

A. George Marsden, Chairman; George Morley, Local Treasurer; Thomas Galland, Secretary; Robert Wood, Joseph Fowler, Joseph Roberts, Robert Young, Francis A. West, John Walmsley, Samuel Wilde, Joseph Meek, William Clegg, Isaac Turton, Thomas Hamer, William M. Bunting, William Leach, Edward Jennings; with Messrs. Calvert, Beaumont, Cheesborough, and Blackburn, of Bradford; Messrs. Scarth, Joshua Burton, Marris, Musgrave, and Howard, of Leeds; Messrs. Brown, Swale, and Suter, of Halifax; Mr. Sutcliffe, of Willow-Hall; Mr. Stocks, of Wakefield; and Mr. Shaw, of Huddersfield.

Q. XIV. Who are appointed to act during the year, and at the next Conference, as General Treasurers and Secretary for the School-Fund?

A. The Rev. John Scott and the Rev. Philip C. Turner, are the Treasurers, and the Rev. William Beal is the Secretary.

Q. XV. Who are the General Committee for the affairs of our Schools?

A. The President and Secretary of the Conference, the General Treasurers and Secretary of the School-Fund, the Rev. Messrs. Jabez Bunting, Gaulter, Entwisle, sen., Lessey, R. Waddy, J. Waterhouse, Jacob Stanley, William Toase, Edmondson, sen., Joseph Taylor, Corbett Cooke, Hannah, Robert Newton, James Gill, Bowers, Anderson, Slater, A. E. Farrar, John Stephens, Leech, S. Warren, Reece, Hickling, Burdsall, J. Davis, T. Jackson, Val. Ward, and such members of the Local Committees as may be duly authorized to attend the next Conference.

Q. XVI. What are the Resolutions of the Conference respecting the affairs of our Schools?

A. 1. The Private Subscriptions and Public Collections for the School-Fund are to be made, as usual, in the month of October. All money belonging to this Fund is to be remitted to the General Treasurers, (whose address is, Rev. Messes. Scott and Turner, Regent-Place, Bristol,) and to no other persons. And it is expressly required, that the Collections, &c., received in October, shall be transmitted to the General Treasurers not later than the 15th of November.

- 2. The sums allowed to Preachers for the education of their daughters, and such of their sons as cannot obtain admission into the Schools, may be paid out of the Collections and Subscriptions made in their respective Circuits, in October, in behalf of the School-Fund, if sufficient for that purpose: but in all such cases the Superintendent is required to send to the General Treasurers, not later than the 15th of November, a particular account of the sums contributed in his Circuit to the Fund, and the claims made upon it; and to state distinctly the names of the children for whose education the usual allowance has been paid, and the exact number of years during which the allowance has been received. Any balance due to the Fund shall be remitted to the Treasurers at the same time.
- 3. We repeat our rule, made in 1820, that the allowances for education do not become due until the next Conference, and are not to be paid in advance, except so far as the Collections and Subscriptions to the Fund in a Circuit will meet the claims of that Circuit. But when the Governors of the Schools have been fully enabled to meet their current expenditure, if a surplus remains in the hands of the Treasurers, they may make such remittances to Circuits where the claims are large and the contributions very small, as may meet their convenience.

4. The Treasurers' Accounts shall be closed on the 24th of June, that they may bring with them to the Conference a complete report of the state of the Fund; in order to which, every Superintendent is required to transmit to the Treasurers a correct list of his Subscriptions and Collections on or before the 20th of June. Each Chairman shall extract from his District Minutes every thing which relates to the School-Fund; which extract he shall send to the Treasurers before the above-mentioned day. And, further, every Superintendent shall pay to the Chairman o his District, at the time of the annual District-Meeting, at latest, all additional Subscriptions or Collections which he may have received after the 15th of November.

5. At every District-Meeting, on the day on which the Circuit Stewards are in attendance during the transaction of the financial business of the District, the Chairman is directed to inquire particularly into the amount of the Subscriptions and Collections raised for the School-Fund in each Circuit, and to compare them with the lists of the preceding year. Where any material deficiency, or want of due exertion, shall appear, the case shall be specially reported in the District Minutes, and be brought by the Chairman before the ensuing Conference.

6. If any Preacher shall remove a son from either of the Schools during the year on account of sickness, the claim which he may advance upon the Fund, in consequence of such a removal, shall be examined by the Local Committee of the School, and reported to the General Committee at the Conference; and the sum

General Committee at the Conference; and the sum which it may be thought proper to allow shall be recommended to the Conference by that Committee.

7. The thanks of the Conference are hereby presented to the late Local Committees and Secretaries of the Schools, to the Rev. Edmund Grindrod and the Rev. John Scott, the General Treasurers, and to the Rev. A. E. Farrar, the General Secretary, for their faithful and diligent attention to the duties of their respective offices; and to the Governors and Governesses, for their affectionate attention to the children committed to their care, and for their able management of the concerns of the Schools, during the past year.

BOOK AFFAIRS.

Q. XVII. What directions are necessary in reference to the affairs of our Book-Room?

A. 1. The Rev. John Bicknell is re-appointed the Secretary to the London Book-Committee for the year ensuing.

2. The Rev. John Brown, sen., of Canterbury, is re-appointed the Editor of the Child's Magazine. Communications intended for this department should be addressed to him, at No. 14, City-Road, London.

3. The Rev. John Bicknell is re-appointed the Secretary to the Methodist Tract-Committee. Communications intended for this department should be addressed to him, at No. 14, City-Road, London.

4. The General Book-Committee, which shall meet on the Saturday previous to the next Conference, shall consist of our President and Secretary, and all the members of the London Book-Committee; with the Rev. Messrs. Gaulter, Sutcliffe, Stephens, Reece, John Anderson, Leach, Atherton, V. Ward, Rogers, Burdsall, Turton, Hannah, Robert Wood, R. Waddy, Newton, B. Slater, S. Jackson, Warren, France, Galland, Morley, W. Moulton, Hickling, James Gill, J. Sumner, J. Waterhouse, J. Davis, Pilter, Rigg, Scott, Bromley, Robert Smith, C. Cook, W. Smith, Ingle, Hope, W. P. Burgess, M'Nicoll, Isaac Keeling, J. Crowther, Edward Jones, Hugh Hughes, W. Batten, and the Irish Representatives.

5. The cordial thanks of the Conference are given to our Editor, the REV. THOMAS JACKSON, for his faithful and valuable services during the past year.

6. The cordial thanks of the Conference are given to the Book-Committee, for their diligent, faithful, and judicious attention to the affairs of our Book-

Room during the past year.

7. The Conference, having heard with great satisfaction the report of the Book-Steward as to the state of the Book-Room, present their most cordial thanks to him, for the indefatigable attention, the great ability, and strict fidelity, with which he has discharged the duties of his office.

8. The thanks of the Conference are given to the Rev. John Brown, sen., for his services during the past year, as Editor of the Child's Magazine.

9. Resolved, that Tablets be erected in the City-Road chapel, London, in memory of the late Rev. Messrs. Joseph Benson, Dr. Adam Clarke, and Richard Watson, similar to those which have been already erected in that place to the memory of the Rev. Messrs. Wesley, Fletcher, and Dr. Coke; and the Book-Committee in London are directed to carry this resolution into effect.

CHAPEL-FUND.

Q. XVIII. What Resolutions does the Conference adopt on the recommendation of the Chapel-Fund Committee?

A. I. Having heard the Report of the Treasurers of the Chapel-Loan Fund, and of the proceedings of the Sub-Committee during the past year, it was unanimously resolved :-

1. That the Conference cannot review the proceedings of the Sub-Committee, or contemplate the very decided and general approbation with which the New Loan Plan has been received, without emotions of sincere gratitude to Almighty God, or without expressing their great satisfaction in the striking proof thus afforded of the strong Methodistical attachments and fraternal sympathies of the body of Trustees throughout the Connexion.

2. That the progress made in the first year, in the execution of this plan, has been most encouraging and satisfactory; in various instances very delightful accounts have been received of the important relief afforded to individuals, and of the happy effects produced on the spiritual prosperity of societies and Circuits, by the removal of the former heavy pressure on their chapels; and the measure of success already realized, while it exceeds previous expectation, justifies the belief that, if the plan be steadily and judiciously carried forward, the result will be of the most beneficial and gratifying character.

3. That the Conference directs the Sub-Committee of next year to employ such means as may be deemed most expedient and effectual for obtaining Loans from such Trustees as have not yet assisted this great measure of public relief; and they are hereby authorized, provided the Loans from Trust-Funds be found inadequate to the full accomplishment of the object, to accept some of those Loans which individual friends have so kindly offered to furnish. The Conference, however, judges that this authority should operate only if a case of necessity should occur; and that Trust-Loans are, on many accounts, greatly to be preferred to personal loans.

4. That the best thanks of the Conference be presented to the gentlemen of the Chapel-Loan Fund Sub-Committee, for the kind concern they have taken, and the valuable and disinterested services they have rendered, in the furtherance of its great and important object; and especially to William Comer, Esq., of Liverpool, for the journeys he has taken, the sacrifices he has made, and the very efficient help which, in various ways, he has afforded.

II. 1. The cordial thanks of the Conference are hereby presented to Thomas Marriott, Esq., and the Rev. William Naylor, the Treasurers of the General Chapel-Fund; and to James Heald, Esq., and John Fernley, Esq., the Treasurers of the Chapel-Loan Fund, for their valuable services during the past year; and they are hereby re-appointed to those offices for the year ensuing.

2. The thanks of the Conference are hereby presented to the Rev. Robert Wood, and the Rev. Jonathan Crowther, the Secretaries of these two Funds, for their very efficient services during the past year; and they are also re-appointed to the same office for the ensuing year.

3. The Sub-Committee of the Loan-Fund, who shall meet in Manchester on the first Wednesdays in November, February, and May, or oftener if necessary, shall be composed of the following persons; viz., the Secretary of the Conference, the Secretaries of the Chapel-Fund, the Treasurers of the Loan-Fund, the Rev. Messrs. Robert Newton, Elijah Morgan, Samuel Jackson, John Hannah, sen., D. M'Nicoll, Samuel Warren, John Anderson, James Gill, John Hickling, George Marsland, Barnard Slater, William Burt, Thomas Galland, George Marsden; and Messrs. A. Braik, G. R. Chappell, R. Henson, W. F. Johnson, J. Johnson, J. Marsden, Thomas Potter, and James Wood, of Manchester; J. Burton, of Middleton; M. Ashton, W. Comer, T. Crook, G. Heald, and T. Sands, of Liverpool; P. Rothwell, of Bolton; Francis Marris, J. Burton, J. Musgrave, and W. G. Scarth, of Leeds; and James Hoyle, of Rochdale.

4. The Committee of Distribution of the Chapel-Fund, which shall meet in London on the Monday previous to the next Conference, shall consist of our President and Secretary, the Treasurers and Secretary of the Chapel-Fund, the Treasurers of the Chapel-Loan Fund, the Treasurer and Secretary of the Chapel-Building Committee, the members of the Sub-Committee above named, with the Rev. Messrs. J. Bunting, T. Lessey, A. Bell, W. Toase, J. Entwisle, J. Gaulter, Richard Waddy, John Davis, John Scott, John Burdsall, J. Blackett, J. Waterhouse, William Clegg, William Leach, Richard Reece; with fifteen Trustees (not being Travelling Preachers) to be chosen by the June Quarterly Meetings of the undernamed Circuits. in the following proportions; viz., two by the first London, two by the second London, one each in the third, fourth, fifth, and sixth London, one in Deptford, one in Bedford, one in Norwich, one in Rochester, one in Oxford, one in Northampton, and one in Birmingham.

5. To prevent irregularities in the schedules of embarrassed chapels, in behalf of which applications for help are made, they shall, in future, be examined and signed by the Chairmen of the Districts, in the District-Meetings.

The Conference presents its grateful acknowledgments to the undernamed friends, for the following acceptable donations:—

CHAPEL-BUILDING COMMITTEE.

Q. XIX. Who are the Chapel-Building Committee, (without whose previous consent, obtained in writing, no chapel, whether large or small, is to be erected, purchased, or only good), for the ensuing year?

purchased, or enlarged,) for the ensuing year?

A. 1. All the Preachers of the Bristol and Kingswood Circuits; the Rev. William Atherton, and Thomas Rogers, of Bath; and the Rev. James Wood, of Bristol; with Messrs. James Wood, jun., Tucker, John Hall, Irving, Wright, Budgett, Billinge, and Thomas Harris, sen., all of Bristol.

2. This Committee are requested to meet regularly on the first Monday in every month; and no permission to erect, purchase, or enlarge any chapel shall be granted, unless at least seven members of the Committee be present.

3. The Rev. RICHARD TREFFRY, SEN., President of the Conference, is appointed Chairman, and the Rev. P. C. Turner is the Secretary, of this Committee. All letters on the subject of chapels should be addressed to the Rev. P. C. Turner, Gloucester-Street, Bristol. It is particularly requested that such letters may be sent post-paid.

4. The thanks of the Conference are hereby presented to the Rev. R. TREFFRY, SEN., and to the Rev. ROBERT ALDER, for their diligent attention to the business of this Committee, during the past year.

5. The Preachers, and others whom it may concern, are reminded, that, according to rule, "no case shall be sanctioned by the Committee, unless it shall come before them as having received the previous approbation of the Quarterly Meeting of the Circuit, and shall be recommended either by the Financial District-Meeting in September, or by the Annual District-Meeting in May."

6. The Chapel-Building Committee are instructed, when their permission is given for the erection of any chapel, to accompany it with an earnest request that the Trustees will subscribe annually, according to their means, from their Trust-Funds, in aid of the Chapel-Fund.

- 7. A copy of the conditions on which the Chapel-Building Committee may sanction the erection, purchase, or enlargement of any chapel, shall be sent to the Trustees of the said chapel for insertion in their Trust-Book,—another to the Superintendent of the Circuit, to be entered in the Circuit-Book,—a third to the Chairman of the District, to be recorded in the District Minute-Book,—and a fourth to the Treasurers of the Chapel-Fund.
-  Proper printed forms of application to the Chapel-Building Committee, for permission to erect new chapels, may be had from Mr. Mason, the Book-Steward.

CHILDREN'S FUND.

Q. XX. What directions shall be given in reference to the Children's Fund?

A. 1. The thanks of the Conference are hereby presented to the District Treasurers of the Children's Fund throughout the kingdom, for their useful services during the year; and also to the Rev.Richard Waddy, and W. G. Scarth, Esq., the General Treasurers, and to the Rev. Wm. Toase, the General Secretary, of this Fund.

2. That the REV. RICHARD WADDY, and W.G. SCARTH, Esq., be the General Treasurers, and the REV. WILLIAM TOASE, the General Secretary, for the ensuing year.

3. All letters on business relating to this Fund should be addressed (post-paid) to the Rev. RICHARD Waddy, Methodist Chapel, Northampton.

4. From the Reports of the District-Meetings, as to the probable number of Children's Allowances to be provided by this Fund in the ensuing year, it appears that the ratio of contribution, in proportion to numbers in society, must for the present remain as follows; viz., one hundred and thirty-two members are to provide the Allowance of one child, and so onwards in regular proportion. On this principle, and in conformity with the Regulations passed at the Conference in 1820, in reference to fractional numbers, the following statement has been drawn up. It determines the number of Children's Allowances for which each District is responsible in the year 1833-1834, and which must be divided by the September District-Meeting, according to rule, among the several Circuits included in it.

PREACHERS' AUXILIARY FUND.

Q. XXII. Who are the Committee of Eleven, chosen by ballot, to consider such cases of Supernumerary and Superannuated Preachers, and of the widows and families of deceased Preachers, as may be recommended by the District-Meetings, in the ensuing year, for relief from the Preachers' Auxiliary Fund?

A. The President and Secretary of the Conference,

Messrs. Entwisle, Reece, Jabez Bunting, Gaulter, Val. Ward, Jacob Stanley, Robert Newton, Burdsall, and John Stephens.

N. B. Should any of the members of this Committee be unable to attend its meeting, on the Friday previous to the assembling of the next Conference, early notice must be sent to the President, who has authority to appoint substitutes from amongst the following brethren; viz., Messrs. Robert Wood, George Marsden, Richard Waddy, and John Hannah.

Q. XXIII. Who are appointed Treasurer and Secretary of the Auxiliary Fund for the ensuing year?

A. Jonathan Barker is the Treasurer; and THOMAS EASTWOOD is the Secretary.

N.B. The Chairmen of Districts are required to send to the Secretary, (whose address is, Methodist Chapel, Pontefract,) such parts of the Minutes of the District-Meetings as relate to the Auxiliary Fund, immediately after the meeting of their Districts; in order that he may have sufficient time, before he leaves his Circuit to attend the Conference, to arrange and prepare the cases recommended to the consideration of the Committee of Eleven.

UNION OF THE CONFERENCE WITH THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH OF CANADA.

Q. XXIV. What are the decisions of the Conference upon the proposed union with the Methodist Episcopal Church of Canada?

A. The English Conference, concurring in the communication of the Canadian Conference, and deprecating the evils which might arise from the collision of their respective agents in the same field of labour; persuaded also that the cause of religion generally, and the interests of Methodism in particular, would be promoted by the united exertions of the two Connexions; and considering that both cordially agree in holding the doctrines contained in Mr. Wesley's Notes on the New Testament, and in his four volumes of Sermons, have adopted the following Resolutions, viz.,—

1. That such a union between the British and Canadian Connexions as shall preserve inviolate the rights and privileges of the Canadian Preachers and societies, on the one hand, and secure the funds of the British Conference, on the other, against any claims on the part of the Canadian Preachers, is highly important and desirable.

2. That as the ensuing Conference in Canada has been appointed to be held in September next, instead of the month of June last, for the purpose of receiving the decisions of the British Conference, the Rev. George Marsden is appointed our Representative to Canada, in order to carry into effect the Resolutions of this Conference on the subject of the intended union.

3. That as one of the conditions of the union proposed by the Canadian Conference is, that the British Conference shall have authority to send from year to year one of its own body from England, to preside over the Canadian Conference, it is resolved unanimously, that our Secretary, the Rev. Edmund Grindrod, be now provisionally appointed the President of the Canadian Conference, to be held at York, the last week in May, 1834.

Q. XXV. What is the judgment of the Conference respecting the conduct of the Rev. Jabez Bunting, and the treatment which he has experienced from various quarters during the year?

A. The Conference, having viewed, with feelings of very great indignation, the base and malignant attempts which have been made by a mercenary press, and certain evil-disposed persons, to calumniate the actions and motives of the Rev. Jabez Bunting, and to destroy his usefulness in the church, gladly embrace this opportunity of unanimously expressing their Christian and fraternal sympathy with their muchesteemed brother, in the unjust and wicked aspersions which have been cast upon his character,—their steady and undeviating confidence in his fidelity and integrity as a Minister and a Christian,—and their perfect and cordial satisfaction with the whole of his conduct during the year.

WEEK-DAY SCHOOLS.

Q. XXVI. What are the sentiments of the Conference with regard to the formation of week-day schools, in connexion with our societies?

A. The Conference has heard with satisfaction of the formation of week-day schools in immediate connexion with some of our societies, and recommends their establishment wherever the means of supporting them can be obtained,—as such institutions, when constructed on strictly Wesleyan principles, and placed under an efficient spiritual control, cannot fail to promote those high and holy ends for which we exist as a religious community.

OBSERVANCE OF THE LORD'S DAY.

Q. XXVII. What other recommendation has the Conference to give on the subject of a better observance of the Lord's day?

A. It was resolved unanimously,

1. That the Conference has, with much satisfaction, heard of the endeavours recently made in Parliament by Sir Andrew Agnew, Bart., in conjunction with other Members, to promote the better observance of the Lord's day; and that he be respectfully requested to accept the thanks of the Conference, and to be assured of our best wishes for the blessing of God upon his future efforts to obtain such legislative enactments founded upon a previous recognition of the divine authority of the Christian Sabbath, as shall afford sufficient protection for those classes of the community who conscientiously wish to keep it holy, from annoyance and injury.

2. That the Conference, continuing to be of opinion that the profanation of the Sabbath is a growing and grievous evil in many parts of our country, again earnestly recommends that our societies and congregations should give their zealous support to the local Societies which have been, or may be, formed for the diminution of this great nuisance; and that they should be ready, if called upon by the parliamentary friends of the cause, to assist it by renewed congregational petitions, or otherwise, as may be deemed most expedient.

LONDON MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Q. XXVIII. What is the Resolution of the Conference on the subject of the attacks which have lately been made on the London Missionary Society?

A. That a respectful and affectionate letter be sent to the Secretaries of the London Missionary Society, disclaiming, on the part of the Conference, any connexion whatever with the "Christian Advocate" newspaper, and strongly disapproving of the attacks on their Missions which have been made in that paper.

EDUCATION OF THE JUNIOR PREACHERS.

Q. XXIX. What is the present determination of the Conference with regard to the better education of our junior Preachers?

A. The following brethren are directed to meet together in London, on Wednesday, October 23d, next, to arrange a plan for the better education of our junior Preachers; viz., the President and Secretary of the Conference, the Rev. Messrs. Newton, Bunting, Gaulter, Entwisle, Reece, Taylor, Warren, Naylor, Stanley, Lessey, T. Jackson, Beecham, Hannah, Galland, Alder, Waugh, V. Ward, and Walton.

MISCELLANEOUS RESOLUTIONS.

1. The Superintendents of those Circuits in which the Conference may from year to year assemble, shall, with the approbation of the President, (as already required by rule,) complete and print, not later than the 15th day of June in each year, a Plan of the order of preaching in the principal chapels, during the session of the Conference; and shall also, on or before the above date, inform every person whom they may have appointed to preach in those chapels, of the time and place of such appointment: and, in order that the Plan thus prepared may not be violated, to the disappointment of our friends, and to the great inconvenience of other parties concerned, no Preacher, who attends the Conference, shall be at liberty to make an engagement to preach in any other Circuit, either on the Sabbath, or on any other day, during the period appointed for the meeting of the Conference, or of its various Preparatory Committees, at the time for which his name shall be inserted on the Conference Plan.

2. The Chairmen of Districts are enjoined to make particular inquiries at their Annual Meetings in reference to all the points of discipline specified in the first Article of the Answer to Q. xxvIII., in our Minutes of 1825.

3. The Superintendents are directed gratuitously to furnish every Steward, Local Preacher, and Class-Leader, in their respective Circuits, with a copy of the Annual Pastoral Address of the Conference to the Methodist Societies, which has now been read and adopted. (See page 110 et seq., of these Minutes.)

4. It is peremptorily required, that, in order to bring the state and progress of the work of God in every Circuit distinctly and regularly under the examination of the District-Meetings, the printed Circuit Schedules, duly filled up, shall be annually produced, read, and considered. The Chairmen of Districts are made responsible for the execution of this order; and shall bring the Circuit Schedules with them to the Conference, that they may be forthcoming, if called for. (See also Minutes for 1831, Q. xxvi., p. 83.)

5. The Rev. Robert Newton is unanimously and earnestly requested to publish, as speedily as possible, the excellent Address which he delivered to the Preachers received into Full Connexion, on the 7th instant.

CONFERENCE OF 1834.

Q. XXVII. When and where shall our next Conference be held?

A. In London; on the last Wednesday in July,

Signed, in behalf and by order of the Conference, RICHARD TREFFRY, PRESIDENT, EDMUND GRINDROD, SECRETARY.

Manchester, August 12th, 1833.

N. B. It is particularly requested, that all letters written to the President or Secretary, or other Preachers, whether during the sitting of the Conference, or in the course of the year, on public business of any kind, may be sent post-paid.

The President's address is, 17, Somerset-Square, Bristol; the Secretary's is, Methodist Chapel, Ir-well-Street, Salford, Manchester.

COMMITTEES FOR 1834.

The Committees, preparatory to the next Conference, are to meet in London, as follows: viz.,—

1. The Stationing Committee, on Tuesday morning, July 22d, at nine o'clock.

2. The Committee of the Auxiliary Fund, (for a list of whom see the answer to Q. XXII., at p. 99 of these Minutes,) on Friday morning, July 25th, at nine o'clock.

3. The Financial Committee, for the examination of the Extraordinary Deficiencies, and for the business of the Children's Fund, (consisting of all the Chairmen and Representatives of Districts, and of such other brethren, belonging to the preceding Committee, as can make it convenient to attend,) on Friday, July 25th, at three o'clock, and at six o'clock, P. M.

4. The Book Committee, (for a list of whom see A. 4, to Q. xvII., at p. 89 of these Minutes,) on Saturday morning, July 26th, at six and at nine o'clock.

5. The Chapel Fund Committee, (for a list of whom see Q. xvIII., A. 4, at p. 92 of these Minutes,) on Monday, July 28th, at nine o'clock in the morning, at three in the afternoon, and at six in the evening; and on Tuesday evening, July 29th, at six o'clock.

6. The General School Committee, (for a list of whom see the answer to Q. xv., at p. 86 of these Minutes,) on Tuesday, July 29th, at six o'clock in the morning, and at three in the afternoon.

7. The Special Missionary Committee, (for a list of whom see the 6th article of the answer to Q. xi., at p. 85 of these Minutes,) on Tuesday, July 29th, at nine o'clock in the morning.

N. B. 1. The Treasurer of the Auxiliary Fund, with Messrs. Cusworth, Scott, R. Waddy, France, Hope, W. Beal, Toase, and Eastwood, (being Treasurers or Secretaries of our several Funds,) are to meet on Wednesday, July 23d, for the purpose of auditing and preparing the accounts of their respective departments.

2. Brother John Anderson, and brother John Hannah, sen., our Sub-Secretaries, are directed to attend at the same time, for the purpose of compiling from the District Minutes various lists, &c., which will facilitate the business of the Committees, and of the subsequent Conference.

3. The Chairmen of Districts are required to bring, or send, in time for the meeting of the Treasurers and Secretaries of our Funds, on Wednesday, July 23d, perfect copies of the District Minutes, and an account of the numbers in society in the several Circuits of their Districts, as taken at the March and Midsummer visitations in 1834.

The amount of the July Collection in each Circuit must be certified by the Superintendent to the Financial Secretary of the District, not later than the third Tuesday in July; which the Chairman must enter in a General Schedule, and bring or send that Schedule to the Secretaries of the Contingent Fund in London on the Wednesday before the Conference.

LIST OF GENERAL COLLECTIONS AND SUBSCRIPTIONS FOR 1833-1834.

The following are the usual and regular Collections which are to be made in all our Circuits during the ensuing year: viz ..-

1. The Private Subscriptions and Public Collections for the Kingswood and Woodhouse-Grove Schools are to be made in the month of October, 1833; and the money should be immediately remitted to the Rev. Messrs. Scott, and P. C. Turner, (Regent's-Place, Bristol,) the General Treasurers for the School-Fund, according to the directions given under Q. xv1., at p. 88 of these Minutes.

2. The Private Subscriptions and Public Collections for the General Chapel-Fund are to be made in the month of February, 1834; and the money should be immediately remitted to Messrs. Marriott and Naylor, the General Treasurers of that Fund, at No. 14, City-Road, London.

3. The Yearly Collection in all the Classes is to be made as usual at the March visitation, and the money to be paid at the District-Meetings in May.

4. The Private Subscriptions for the Mission-Fund are to be received in all our Circuits, either weekly, monthly, quarterly, or annually, as is most convenient to the Subscribers. The annual Public Collections for that Fund are to be made in all our chapels, and other preaching-places, at the time of the Anniversaries of the several Auxiliary or Branch Societies; or, where no Public Meetings of that kind are held, in the month of May. The money so raised is to be remitted, through the hands of the District Treasurers, to Messrs. Haslope and Taylor, the General Treasurers, whose address is, No. 77, Hatton-Garden.

5. The Private Subscriptions for the Auxiliary Preachers' Fund are to be solicited in the month of June, 1834, and the money to be paid on or before the first day of the Conference, to the Financial Secretary, and by him to the Rev. Jonathan Barker, the Treasurer.

6. The Collection in aid of the Contingent Fund, for the support and spread of the Gospel in Great Britain and Ireland, is to be made in all our chapels and preaching-places, not later than the second Sunday in July, 1834; and the money is to be paid, on or before the first day of the Conference, to the Financial Secretary, and by him to the Rev. Joseph Cusworth, the Treasurer of the Contingent Fund. The amount collected in each Circuit is to be certified by the Superintendent to the Financial Secretary, not later than the third Tuesday in July. (See N. B. 4th, p. 89, in the Minutes of 1830.)

THE ANNUAL ADDRESS

OF THE

THE METHODIST SOCIETIES.

The state of the s

DEAR BRETHREN,

WITH mingled sentiments of sorrow and of joy, we solicit your serious attention, while we briefly but affectionately address you in reference to the past year,—one of the most eventful in the history of Methodism.

You cannot be insensible to the bereavements we have suffered since we last assembled in the Conference held at Liverpool. The solemn feelings which we then experienced, amidst the ravages of an impartial and relentless pestilence, are still fresh in our recollection. In answer, we believe, to multiplied and powerful prayers,-prayers never to be forgotten by those who heard them, -God was pleased to preserve us in health during the whole of the sittings of that assembly, but soon after our departure to the several fields of labour appointed for us, He began, unquestionably in the wisdom and holiness of his sovereign will, to visit us with death; and since that time no less than thirty six of our esteemed and beloved Brethren have been called, and several of them very suddenly, to lay down their charge together with their life. In no one year since the commencement of Methodism has death been permitted to make such appalling inroads on its Ministers. Some of the best and most distinguished servants of the church ever known amongst us, have been most unexpectedly removed from us, and at a period too when it seemed extremely desirable that their great talents and influence should be continued to this extensive and important Connex-Some of them were possessed of mental powers of the very first order, and were eminently spiritual, holy, and benevolent. Their talents, zeal, and labours would have conferred an honourable distinction on any age of the church; and when all who cherish a grateful remembrance of their delightful ministrations shall have passed away, their admirable writings will remain to charm and edify mankind while time shall last. They were great lights in the church below; but their lustre is now inconceivably brighter. "wise," and now "shine as the brightness of the firmament;" " they turned many to righteousness," and now "shine as the stars for ever and ever." But they are gone to their reward. In the days of their youthful vigour the Gospel was so preached to them that the trumpet gave a certain sound, and they prepared themselves for the battle. They "fought the good fight of faith;" they "quitted themselves like men." At last another trumpet sounded their retreat from the field; and now, through the grace and mercy of their divine Master, they are enjoying the spoils of the victories which they won.

While they live in our affectionate remembrance, let our warm tributes of grateful commendation be accompanied by constant endeavours to benefit by their instructions, and to "follow them as they followed Christ." Let us, as far as possible, reflect the faithful picture of their numerous excellencies in our own Christian character; let us seize their fallen mantles, and drink deeply of that pure and salutary spring of holy love, the fountain of their piety, charity, and public spirit, the internal source of the life and beauty of their many noble qualities. We are deeply affected by the consideration that the burden which they bore is now transferred to other shoulders. We beseech you, therefore, to assist us with your prayers, that God, in compassion to our infirmities, would cause a double portion of his Holy Spirit to rest on us who remain; and that He would be pleased to raise up a succession of men, so qualified for special service by extraordinary graces and abilities, as the future exigencies of his cause amongst us shall require.

These observations apply to you, as well as to us who minister in holy things. These bereavements call on you to co-operate with us, in every possible way, to carry on the great spiritual purposes of our Connexion; to keep at the utmost distance from every thing that might weaken our united strength; and to cheer and encourage us, by all the means within your power, to save the perishing souls of men. Some of our Fathers are very far advanced in life, and many others of our body are past the prime of their days. But we would not view these melancholy events without a lively and deepening concern for the cause of God amongst us. We trust they will stimulate our zeal for the promotion of your most important interests. Only co-operate with us, as indeed you have done, in urging forward the ark of God. "Yea, brethren, let us have joy of you in the Lord; refresh our bowels in the Lord. Ye are in our hearts to die and live with vou. Great is our boldness of speech towards you; great is our glorying of you; we are filled with comfort; we are exceeding joyful in all our tribulation."

We have inexpressible satisfaction in assuring you of the very prosperous state of the Connexion. At this Conference we have set apart to the ministry amongst you, by public and solemn recognition, twenty-eight young men, whose piety, zeal, and talents for the ministry, give us no small comfort under our loss of those Fathers and Brethren who have entered into rest. The peace and harmony and cordial cooperation of our Christian brethren throughout the Connexion, to promote a still greater revival and extension of the work, are happily more general and more decided than at any former period. The present

Conference has perhaps never been exceeded in the unanimity and brotherly affection with which its important and arduous affairs have been conducted. The increase of members for the last year-upwards of twenty-six thousand in the United Kingdom and the Mission Stations, or sixty-two thousand, including America—has greatly surpassed that of any former year. Of these, nearly two thousand belong to our Missions. We have to add to this amount three thousand members, being the increase of the societies in Canada. At this Conference, it has been proposed to unite that. part of our Connexion with the British societies; and our respected and beloved brother George Masrden has been appointed, and has already proceeded, with the prayers and best wishes of his Brethren, to be the President of the Canadian Conference, which will be held on his arrival in that country. It is hoped that this measure will tend to farther usefulness, and to the preservation of the Weslevan Methodists as one body throughout the world.

Our Missions, as you may learn from their ample and interesting Reports, are not only prosperous, but full of promise. The entire abolition of colonial slavery, and the legal introduction of religious liberty into the colonies,—measures now passed or passing in the British Parliament,—will, it is confidently believed, contribute greatly, by the providence and blessing of Almighty God, to the more extensive triumphs of the truth in that important part of our Mission.

With regard to the financial difficulties connected with our chapels, we hope the time is not far distant when they will be substantially, if not entirely, removed. A large meeting on this subject, consisting of Preachers in the neighbouring Circuits, and of highly respectable laymen from different parts of our Connexion, was held at Manchester in the beginning of the last year. The surprising manifestation of unanimity, benevolence, and zeal, which then was witnessed, in the adoption of decisive measures for removing impediments to the spiritual prosperity of Methodism by disburdening our chapels, was evidently from the Lord; and since that time we have seen that in some places where important relief was granted, the spiritual concerns of the societies, through the removal of discouragements, and the promotion of peace and union, began immediately to prosper, and a subsequent revival in those places has added numerous converts to our Zion. A more powerful motive than this to the speedy and effectual removal of such burdens cannot possibly be offered to the consideration of the Methodist societies, convinced as we are that the most anxious wish and endeavour of those societies have always been to promote, not a formal system of imposing externals, but the conversion and spiritual edification of the souls of men.

In this happy state of the Connexion, you will no doubt recognise the special favour and powerful hand of God. When we reflect that the instances of our prosperity are of such various kinds, and all regularly terminating in one object, and that object great and most important, the salvation of innumerable souls from a state of sin and wretchedness to Christian purity and joy in the Holy Ghost; and when we consider that all this is effected amidst the scorn and enmity of an unbelieving and persecuting world, and not unfrequently of those who profess to belong to the church of Christ; and when we farther recollect the incompetency of our feeble instrumentality for the carrying on of so great a work to so glorious an issue, -we see in the whole striking marks of design; and the conclusion seems not merely admissible, but absolutely irresistible, that, whoever may despise and oppose us, God himself is for us. Let us then devoutly and unanimously join to give Him all the praise, to supplicate Him with unceasing prayer, and to put our whole trust and confidence in his almighty arm for success in all our future efforts to advance the interests of his kingdom.

You cannot fail to observe, that we live in times of great public change and agitation. High controversies are on foot, both as to civil and ecclesiastical affairs. You may sometimes be in danger of listening with too warm an interest to such debates; for though they do not immediately concern our Connexion, yet they occupy so great a share of the public attention, that you may find it difficult to avoid forming certain strong opinions which without great watchfulness might betray you into unprofitable prejudices, and a partyspirit somewhat injurious to your charity and peace of The Divine Head of the Church will no doubt eventually cause these agitations to subside, and to be succeeded by great and permanent spiritual prosperity; will say to this sea of conflict, "Be still," and there will be "a great calm." Amidst all the complication and perplexity of our public affairs, events are doubtless hastening the universal triumph of the cross; and the people of God have no cause to be discouraged or alarmed, but to hope in Him that the magnificent prophecies of his word on this most interesting subject will be speedily fulfilled; not by breaking down the several and unessential forms of ecclesiastical government,-forms which, for aught we know to the contrary, may remain while time shall last :-- but by accompanying the publication of "the truth as it is in Jesus" with the copious effusions of his Holy Spirit, to "turn men from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan" to the service of the living "God." To this important result you may essentially contribute, if not by preaching, yet by prayer for this promised advent of the Spirit, and by promoting the dissemination of the truth to the ends of the earth; not by fiery zeal for circumstantials, but by exhibiting the power of the Gospel in a holy life, and thus diffusing its savour through the whole circle of your influence. Such appears to have been the principal design and constant practice of the first Christians, as it was of the primitive Methodists. All other things seem to have been merged in this, and subjected to the regulating power of its supremacy in the hearts of those benevolent and heavenly-minded men. Brethren, let us follow them as thus "they followed Christ."

The special blessing of God upon means chiefly and vigorously directed to this one point,—upon the doctrines we preach, the discipline we exercise, and the public and private ordinances, so scriptural, so simple, so spiritual, which as a body we enjoy,—is the great secret of the extraordinary success of Methodism. Those who attribute this success to the mere ecclesiastical policy of our venerable Founder, and of those who have followed him in the continued application of his system, have done too much honour to the genius and sagacity of the Methodists. They do not understand the nature of that system; they perceive not the general principle of its working, and the true cause of its wonderful efficiency. Let them but preach the same truths, and prosecute the same plans, and the divine blessing on such measures will produce the same effects.

As our grand aim, therefore, as Ministers, is to save the souls of those who hear us, your aim, of course, is to be saved, and to promote, as far as possible, the salvation of your fellow-men. We beseech you then, not only to believe our doctrines with great cordiality, but to reach after the fulness of the experimental privileges to which they direct you, and to graft upon the healthful stock of this experience the practice of piety. Be alarmed at the very thought of the unfruitful notions and feelings of the Antinomian and the enthusiast. Claim and maintain, indeed, your constant enjoyment of the Spirit's witness testifying your adoption; but join to this the strictest attention to the duties of your station. Read, and study, and obey the brief but comprehensive abstract of scriptural holiness contained in the Rules of the Society. It will teach you to abstain from that which is evil, and to follow that which is good.

In these times of conflict among certain classes of the community, keep at the utmost distance from all associations which are subversive of the principles of true and proper liberty, employing unlawful oaths, and threats, and force to acquire new members, and to accomplish purposes which would tend to destroy the very frame-work of civil society. Such connexions would inflict a dangerous wound on your spiritual existence, and greatly injure the life of God within you. Watch against the evil tendency of many cheap and imposing publications now circulating through the land; and which, to say the least, contain nothing that can nourish faith and love. Read the holy Scriptures, and meditate upon them day and night. Observe the duties of the Sabbath with all due solemnity; and promote its sanctified observance as far as possible in others. Be serious and punctual in the several exercises of family religion. "Owe no man any thing, but to love one another." Let love, perfect love to God and man, sweeten all your tempers, and adorn all your actions, both at home and in your ordinary intercourse with others. "Be at peace among your selves." "Be of one mind, live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you."

Signed, in behalf and by order of the Conference,

RICHARD TREFFRY, President, EDMUND GRINDROD, Secretary.

Manchester, August 12th, 1833.

OF THE

IRISH CONFERENCE,

TO THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE.

FATHERS AND BRETHREN,

For more than forty years past, we have not addressed you with feelings more ardent, and yet more painful and sympathetic, than we do this day. It is indeed a day of lamentation. The "chariot of fire, and the horses of fire," have appeared, and our Elijahs have gone up into heaven. We see them no more; and in the anguish of our hearts we cry, "Our Fathers! our Fathers! the chariots of Israel, and the horsemen thereof."

The remembrance of those distinguished servants of the Lord, whose ministry by the Holy Ghost wrought in us, an increase of all wisdom, whose holy zeal oft kindled our spark into a flame, whose prudent and judicious counsels directed us in our most afflictive and distressing circumstances, must be ever cherished by us with the utmost respect and gratitude. Yes, the names of Clarke, Watson, and James, with others of our departed Fathers and Brethren, which with them are written in the book of life, are engraven in our hearts, and shall be had in everlasting remembrance.

That fearful disorder which visited your land, also spread its ravages in ours, and multitudes have fallen under its scourge; and although our people have been generally preserved, yet our lamented brother Bailey, one of our faithful and laborious Irish Missionaries, is numbered among its victims.

The prosperity of the Lord's work, noticed in your Address, together with the deeply interesting communications of our President and his colleagues, concerning the enlarged outpourings of the Holy Spirit on your country and Connexion have filled our hearts with gratitude to God. And with still increasing joy we have to inform you, that, during the past year, our gracious Lord has given to our labours and our prayers an increase of upwards of fifteen hundred souls. Such an increase, amidst the disadvantages and opposition under which we labour in this country, opens to us a door of hope of future prosperity; and while it encourages our zeal, it lays us in the dust before Him who worketh all good in us and by us; to whom be glory and dominion for ever and ever!

With you we feel persuaded, that were all who enjoy the power of religion "openly to bear their faithful testimony against those vices which every where meet the eye, and revolt the heart," it would greatly tend to put to shame the abominations of intemperance, Sabbath-breaking, and blaspheming the name of the Lord;—crimes which, alas! overspread and debase our land.

No doubt, this demoralizing state of society has been greatly increased by political agitation, and encouraged by a dogmatical superstition.

Superstition is founded in error, error involves ignorance, and ignorance of God and of his holy word generates crime. Hence, the overflowing of ungodliness. Against those vices we bear our humble but decided testimony; and we trust our beloved people will arise to a still more zealous and constant discharge of their Christian obligations to the world at large, and that their "light shall so shine before men, that they may see their good works, and glorify our Father which is in heaven."

We have peculiar pleasure in being enabled to state, that, notwithstanding the various agitations of our distracted country, our people, as a body, have been happily preserved from all interference with political matters. To fear God, to honour the King, to obey the laws, and live peaceably with all men, are not only maxims of our holy religion, but also essential rules, which we conscientiously observe in the regulation of our conduct.

The exercise of a godly discipline we have found conducive to the best interests of our societies; and while we feed the flocks committed to our care, we are resolved to guard the sheep-fold from the erroneous and incorrigible, being fully persuaded that Christian discipline is essential to Christian order.

In these times of infidelity, superstition, and vacillating opinions, we feel called upon to keep and contend for "the faith once delivered to the saints," which has been clearly taught, and ably defended from the holy Scriptures, by our revered Founder, and those kindred spirits who, contemporary with him, and in succession, have laboured in this hallowed service, and are now together rejoicing before the throne, having received the end of their faith, the salvation of their souls.

The fundamental doctrines of our sacred profession are, the essential Deity of the Lord Jesus Christ, in the unity of the Father, and the Holy Spirit; his universal mediatorial sacrifice; the personal justification of all believers through faith in his blood; the attestation of this grace by the direct witness of the Holy Spirit: and its accompanying fruits of practical holiness, necessarily produced by the indwelling of Christ in us, which is our hope of glory. These doctrines stand confessedly in the front of the Christian revelation; and we cannot, dare not, compromise them, or commix them with any deleterious systems which deny either the Godhead of Christ, the riches of his universally atoning sacrifice, or the salutary and sanctifying inspirations of the Spirit of God. These doctrines our Lord taught, and his Apostles preached. For them the martyrs bled; and for them our Founder and our Fathers suffered reproach and persecution as enthusiasts and deceivers, as turning the world upside down. Their names were cast out as evil; the infidel hated, the profane insulted, the weak and the wavering turned aside, and walked no more with them; but by the force of the truth as it is in Jesus, and in demonstration of the Spirit, and with power from on high, they were enabled to put to silence the ignorance of infidel and evil men.

On this subject, we cannot but notice with respect to the venerable Wesley, that while in this arduous work he effectually wielded the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God; he was also amply supplied with a quiver full of arrows, sharp and well directed. viz., the devotional liturgy of the established Church. Such were the weapons of his warfare; and with them he corrected the rash, put to shame the rude, enlightened the ignorant, by teaching the wisdom that is from above; and through his instrumentality, under the blessing of Heaven, multitudes in after-ages have been confirmed in religion, pure and undefiled. Whatever, therefore, may be the opinion of some, we believe it is the sober judgment of the deliberate and candid, that Wesleyan Methodism has been for nearly the last century the humble but sacred depot of evangelical truth.

With the benevolent of all churches in the united empire, we have long deplored the afflicted state of the negro slaves in the West India colonies; and our ceaseless anxieties and prayers have been directed towards their deliverance; and now we behold with joy the dawn of the day of mercy: and while we bless the Father of universal grace, we cannot but express our feelings of gratitude and respect for those men. who in the worst of times dared to mix their sympathies, their zeal, their labours, and their influence. that they might one day see the cup of blessing poured into the lips of the wretched; and we trust that by the legislative measures now pending, the captives shall soon be set free, their consciences be uncontrolled by human authority, and their rights as men and as Christians be effectually recognised and established.

Your appointment at your last Conference of our highly-valued countryman, Dr. Clarke, and our beloved brother James, to accompany your esteemed President to our Conference this year, was to us matter of joyous anticipation; but it has pleased the supreme and unerring Disposer of events to disappoint this hope, by the unexpected removal of those distinguished Ministers of the Gospel from their labours in the church below, to the joys and glory of the church above. And while we feel the deepest sympathy under this bereavement, we heartily rejoice in God our Saviour that he has spared to you, and to us, our excellent President; and we have to record our unfeigned acknowledgments for the visit of those excellent brethren, the Rev. Messrs. Bunting and Lessey, whom he selected to accompany him in the room of the deceased. Nor can we withhold from them the cordial expression of our gratitude, for their compliance, at much personal inconvenience, with this unexpected call: their presence amongst us in this day of trouble has been to us indeed cheering and consolatory. Whilst, associated with our President, their long and experienced counsels have greatly and happily assisted us in all the business and concerns of our Conference; and never, perhaps, on any former occasion, were their public ministrations of the word of life to listening multitudes attended with more of the illumination, unction, and power of the Holy Spirit; and the gracious fruits thereof we can have no doubt will be found after many days.

The labours of the Rev. Messrs. Toase and Broadbent, Hannah and Duncan, your Missionary deputation, were rendered highly beneficial to our Missionary cause. Their ministrations were instructive and profitable, and their Missionary communications were interesting and affecting. But we had to regret the short period of their continuance among us.

The faithful labours and diligent attentions of our esteemed brother, the Rev. Elijah Hoole, the Agent of your Mission-Schools, have induced us to request his re-appointment the ensuing year. The circumstances in which he has been placed in the two preceding years will, it is hoped, justify in your estimation this our expectation of his return to us.

We send as our Representatives, to your Conference, our esteemed and beloved brethren, the Rev. Messrs. William Stewart, Thomas Wade Doolittle, and Thomas Waugh. Finally, Fathers and Brethren, "pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course and be glorified, even as it is with you;" and that by "counting all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus our Lord," and "holding fast the profession of our faith without wavering." we may be found in him, and in the end be counted meet to be partakers with you "of the inheritance of the saints in light."

Signed, in behalf and by order of the Conference,

JOHN F. MATHEWS, Sub-Secretary.

THE ANSWER

OF THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE IRISH CONFERENCE.

VERY DEAR BRETHREN,

WHEN our highly-esteemed fellow-servants, your Representatives, presented to us your Annual Address, they found us assembled in circumstances at once awful and animating, and impressed with sentiments of peculiar solemnity. The extraordinary number of those who have been called to rest from their labours, the distinguished character of some of them, and the affecting manner in which they were taken from us, have admonished us to remember the frailty of our mortal nature, and to work while it is day. These bereavements have deepened our previous conviction that we who thus cherish the memory of the loved and venerated dead, shall never all meet again till we rise with them to appear before their God and our God. While we joyfully anticipate the great day when we shall be re-united to our departed worthies, we have also the consolation of knowing that their memorial has not perished with them. They live in the grateful remembrance of great numbers of the people of God, who were profited by their ministry. The venerable Dr. ADAM CLARKE was, through divine providence and grace, a great gift from your country to ours, and to the general church of God both now and in future ages. His writings, and those of the late REV. RICHARD WATSON, will long continue to enrich the minds of Christian readers with treasures of sacred knowledge, and will be instrumental to the producing and maturing of ho'y thoughts and principles in the minds of multitudes yet unborn.

The removal of one of these great men in advanced age, by the mysterious agency of the pestilence; of another in the fulness of capacious and sanctified intellect, by slow consuming affliction; of another beloved brother from a course of strenuous official exertion; of many others who were suddenly taken away "from a suffering church beneath, to a reigning church above;"—these events, viewed in connexion with the awful progress of that wide-wasting plague by which some of them were smitten, have taught us afresh to acknowledge the sovereign interference of "that great mysterious Deity" who has so signally dealt with us since our last annual assembly. "Clouds and darkness are round about Him;" but "righteousness and judgment are the habitation of his throne."

Notwithstanding the scoffs and revilings of supercilious infidels and hardened worldlings, on occasion of the appointment of a general fast in the season of national calamity, many of our countrymen "remembered God, and were troubled," when they perceived, as his messenger, an insidious invisible destroyer, gliding on the wings of the wind, and silently breathing agony and death upon thousands of their fellow-beings in the throngs of great cities, and amongst the scattered population of country villages. The national fast was observed with extraordinary solemnity. He who spared the penitent Ninevites, showed himself still rich in mercy, and infused a spirit of humiliation into the hearts of multitudes in that day of affliction and alarm. Many were then moved to hear his word who had previously been strangers to his sanctuaries. The Spirit of the Lord accompanied the word of his grace; many were turned from their sins, and obtained joy and peace in believing. The blessed effect of these remarkable dispensations of Providence and grace is manifest in an unprecedented increase of the members of our societies; amounting in Great Britain to 22,898, in the Missionary stations to 1937, which, with 1504 members added to your societies in Ireland, make a total increase of 26,339.

In all these great visitations,—in the extraordinary mortality amongst our Fathers and Brethren in the ministry,—in the ravage and terror of the Asiatic cholera,—in the national humiliation,—in the addition of so many thousands of members to the flock of which the great Shepherd has made us overseers,—in all we perceive and adore the mighty working of "Him who is invisible;" to Him we desire to give all the praise of the extensive success with which our ministrations have been blessed; and, casting ourselves before the mediatorial throne, we would say, "Not unto us, O Lord, not unto us, but unto thy name we give glory, for thy mercy and thy truth's sake."

We doubt not that you fully participate with us in our conscientious conviction that, from the gracious increase given to our labours in the Gospel, there arises a proportionate increase of pastoral responsibility, that so many thousands of babes in Christ are committed to us to be trained in knowledge and holiness, and guarded from the snares of the wicked one.

We congratulate you on that abstinence from political strife, which, as we learn from your Address, has been generally observed by the societies under your care. The awakening impression of that foreign pestilence which afflicted these islands, was mercifully sanctified, in both countries, to the general preservation of our united Connexions from the extravagant excitement and vehement contention of parties in the state: evils which, by producing an idolatrous estimation of worldly objects, cause a correspondent degree of spiritual decay and deadness, and often issue in final apostasy from Christ.

We regard with a warm fraternal interest the high calling of your Connexion, as a witness for God in behalf of scriptural truth and holiness, against dangerous error and licentious superstition. Thankful on our own account that the lines have fallen to us in pleasant places, we have often admired the fortitude with which you have "laboured, and had patience, and not fainted," in your more exposed and trying post of duty; and we still sympathize with you, as having more especially to bear the reproach of Christ, and to maintain more aggressively and incessantly a spiritual conflict against the crafty devices and arrogant pretensions of Popery. Our earnest prayer for you and for ourselves is, that all our official and individual efforts, in proclaiming and defending the truth, in testifying against errors and corruptions, in reproving sin and discountenancing vice, in maintaining the godly discipline and unity of our societies, may proceed from the "faith that worketh by love." We desire to be inspired and sustained in all our labours and conflicts, in all our zeal and patience, by that precious grace of faith, that divine conviction of the absolute reality, transcendent value, and impending nearness of the things unseen, that penetrating and abiding sense of the presence of the invisible Jehovah, which wrought so gloriously in the ancient believers. This only can preserve us from being dangerously excited by the inevitable offences of the church, and by the vexations and allurements of the world. victorious faith can alone enable us to be so forbearing and forgiving towards the weak and preindiced. the unreasonable and injurious, as our duty and safety require; and keep us in such a state and habit of religious recollection as always to view temporal things in the light of eternity.

We rejoice to believe that a faithful adherence to our wholesome discipline is increasing in both Connexions. It is our privilege in this respect to improve the inestimable advantages we inherit from our holy and gifted predecessors; and not only to avoid degeneracy, but to go from strength to strength. In regard to doctrine and morals, one of our venerable Fathers, qualified by long experience to compare the present with the early days of Methodism, has declared his conviction that the Connexion was never more free from erroneous opinions, never more consistent and pure in practice. In Christian doctrine we do not expect to make discoveries, or to become wise above what is written; but we long to know and to make known all revealed truth, and especially those principal truths of the Gospel by which we and our hearers may become wise unto salvation.

We also rejoice with you in the near prospect that the supreme legislature of the British empire is about "to undo the heavy burdens" in the West India colonies, to "let the oppressed go free," and to break every "yoke;" and that the measure will be accompanied by such regulations as will secure the religious liberty of every British subject in those colonies.

The arrangements which have been, or shortly are to be made, for an extensive employment of Scripture readers in the Circuits of your Connexion, will, we trust, have a blessed effect on great numbers of your countrymen, who have been retained in helpless mental bondage and inaccessible bigotry, through the insidious craft of a corrupt priesthood, in forbidding them to read the word of life.

We have appointed our highly-esteemed President, the Rev. RICHARD TREFFRY, together with the Rev. ROBERT NEWTON, to attend your next Conference. We have also deputed the Rev. Messrs. David M'Nicoll and Abraham Stead to attend and assist at the annual meetings of your Missionary Societies in the north of Ireland; and for the south, the Rev. Messrs. John Scott and Robert Young. We have also re-appointed the Rev. Elijah Hoole as our Agent for Missionary Schools.

Your Representatives had previously secured a high place in our esteem and affection: in their present visit to our Conference, they are again received with unfeigned cordiality, as our valued friends and brethren, and as the messengers of your churches.

Before we conclude our answer, it may be proper to take this opportunity of informing you officially, that, at the request of the Methodist Connexion in Upper Canada, we have taken measures to associate with us, in a manner chiefly similar to our union with yourselves, the members of that Connexion; and have appointed the Rev. George Marsden to attend their next Conference. This union will, we trust, be instrumental, by the divine blessing, to the diffusion of the pure doctrine and wholesome discipline of Wesleyan Methodism, amongst the colonists and aboriginal natives of the vast regions extending on the north of the United States.

We were never more united by the easy bonds of mutual love, more harmonious in our views and proceedings, or more conscious of divine aid and control, than in the sittings of the present Conference.

We pray Him "who is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think;" "who withholdeth no good thing from them that walk uprightly;" and who has assured us that "the Angel of the Lord encampeth round about them that fear Him, and delivereth them;" that he will grant abundant increase to your labours in his vineyard; and have you, and the societies to whom you minister, in His holy keeping.

Signed, in behalf and by order of the Conference, EDMUND GRINDROD, Secretary.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

OF CANADA,

BRITISH CONFERENCE.

REVEREND FATHERS AND BRETHREN,

WE have adopted, and directed our Secretary to transmit to your Missionary Committee, a series of resolutions agreed to by this Conference, making proposals and recommending the adoption of measures by which the Methodist societies in Upper Canada, the neighbouring provinces, and the whole British empire, may be united in one body, under the superintendence of the common parent of Methodism throughout the world,-the Wesleyan Conference.

The consideration of this important measure has been delayed for want of that free and full exchange of views and feelings which has recently taken place, between the REV. ROBERT ALDER, the excellent Representative of your Missionary Committee, and the members of this Conference. The satisfaction and profit we have derived from his presence and labours, during a part of the deliberations of our present session; and our high regard for his gifts, piety, and devotion to the interests of Methodism in this province, induce us most respectfully to suggest that, should our proposals meet with your concurrence, as we devoutly hope they may, Mr. Alder may be appointed our first President, to complete those arrangements so affectionately and happily begun by the assistance of his suggestions and counsel.

In order to acquaint you more fully with the state of our societies, and the work generally, in this province; to learn and rejoice with you in your prosperity; and to confer on the important matters submitted to your consideration, through your Missionary Committee, we have appointed the Rev. Egerton Ryerson, a member of this Conference, as our Representative; whom we beg to recommend to your brotherly kindness and attention, and to whom we refer you for information on all matters connected with the affairs and interests of the junior branch of Wesleyan Methodism in Upper Canada.

The work of God is in a state of encouraging prosperity throughout our Societies and Missions. Indian converts, with very few individual exceptions, are steadfast, and improving in piety, knowledge, and civilization; and the Missionary field is enlarging, and thousands of the uncivilized and untaught Indians are soliciting the means of educational instruction, and the preaching of a Gospel salvation. Rational, humble, and scriptural piety has visibly progressed among the members of our societies generally; and the number, extent, character, and influence of revivals of religion in our congregations during the past year have exceeded those of any former year since the introduction of Methodism into this province. The subjects of this gracious work have been, for the most part, amongst the more respectable and influential classes of society. The nett increase of our church members during the year is three thousand six hundred and sixteen. Although numerical increase is not always a proof of real prosperity; yet this, connected with a manifest growth in grace amongst professors, and a generally strict and judicious administration of discipline, enables us with increasing confidence, gratitude, and self-abasement, to say in the dying words of our venerable Founder, "The best of all is, God is with us."

Our prayer is, that the grace of God may abound more and more on both sides of the Atlantic, until the knowledge of the Lord shall fill the earth, as the waters cover the great deep.

By order and on behalf of the Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Canada,

JAMES RICHARDSON, Secretary.

Hallowell, Upper Canada, August 18th, 1832.

ANSWER

BRITISH CONFERENCE

CONFERENCE OF THE

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH OF CANADA.

DEAR BRETHREN,

THE Address of your Conference has afforded us cause of devout thanskgiving. We rejoice in the success with which Almighty God has crowned your labours in general during the past year; and dwell with peculiar satisfaction on the good resulting from your Missionary operations among the Indian tribes. To you has been awarded the honour of paying some considerable portion of the debt which we owe as a nation to those interesting aboriginal inhabitants of British America. In regard of ourselves, the Methodistical year which is now closing on us has been most eventful. We have experienced some of the most afflictive bereavements ever sustained by us as a body. Some of our brightest luminaries have been extinguished; many of our most respected and most useful fellow-labourers have been removed. But in the midst of our trouble God has been eminently with us, and has made our labours successful to an unprecedented extent; our increase this year being 22,898 in Great Britain, 1504 in Ireland, and 1937 in our Foreign Mission stations.

Your proposals of union have been received by us with great satisfaction. We are anxious to have a closer connexion with a religious body to which we are so nearly related, which holds the same doctrines, and walks by the same rules as ourselves. The few alterations which we have made in your plan have for their object to secure more effectually a vital and beneficial union, without interfering with the privileges of your Preachers or societies, or affecting your chapel property. We have ascertained from your Missionary Report the aid required for your Missions, and have agreed to allow a sum for their support not exceeding £1000 per annum; and have determined that on your ratification of the union, £1000 shall be the grant for the first year.

We are truly thankful for the appointment of your excellent Representative, the REV. EGERTON RYERSON. The urbanity of his manners, his pious deportment, and his efficient public labours have strengthened the general feeling in favour of the proposed union; and the talent and temper with which he has negotiated the business entrusted to his management, have proved him worthy of your confidence. We have received with great pleasure the expression of your regard for our beloved brother, the REV. ROBERT ALDER; but his appointment to an official situation at home prevents our sending him on a second visit to you. We have, however, appointed as our Representative to your Conference our highly-esteemed brother, the Rev. GEORGE MARSDEN, who has twice honourably filled the office of President of our Conference, and whose knowledge of Canadian affairs, acquired in his office of General Treasurer to our Missions, specially qualifies him for the business now confided to him. And we send with him, as his companion, the Rev. Joseph Stinson, formerly Missionary in Canada, and whom we regard as a fit person to remain with you as the General Superintendent of the Missions.

We earnestly pray that the blessing of the Great Head of the Church may rest upon you in all your deliberations, that you may be led to the adoption of those measures which will be best calculated to extend our common cause in your rising country, and that you may be enabled successfully to prosecute your noble plans for the benefit of the young. We trust that you will continue to watch over your doctrines with holy jealousy, that they may be preserved in their purity; and that you will be enabled so to train your candidates for the ministry, that they may be found in due time workmen approved of God, rightly dividing the word of truth. And we have confidence in you, dear Brethren, that you will incessantly labour, while disseminating a pure faith, to lead your peopl onward to the highest attainments of experimental religion, and to the most elevated Christian practice. This we ourselves are determined to do. We are resolved still earnestly to recommend Christian holiness in all its branches; teaching those among whom we labour to perform their duties to all men, and, avoiding the mere politics of this world, to render, for Christ's sake, all due obedience to "the powers that be."

Anticipating the happiest results from the negotiation so prosperously commenced,

We remain, dear Brethren,

In behalf of the Conference,

RICHARD TREFFRY, President, EDMUND GRINDROD, Secretary.

Manchester, August 7th, 1833.
